

Following the success of "CRAWL" holding #1 on the NZ singles chart for a staggering 7 weeks - Atlas return with their new single "MAGIC8".

There have been changes since last we met too, with the final piece in the Atlas jigsaw falling into place in the shape of 20 year old Joe McCallum, who has now joined the band on drums.

With the line up of Beth Campbell (vox), Sean Cunningham (vox/guitars), Ben Campbell (bass), Andy Lynch (lead guitar), and Joe McCallum (drums) finally complete the band disappeared into Neil Finns Roundhead Studios in Auckland, and with award winning producer David Nicholas (PULP, Elton John, INXS) to complete their debut album, "REASONS FOR VOYAGING".

"MAGIC8" is taken from the bands forthcoming debut album "REASONS FOR VOYAGING" due out on NOVEMBER 19th 2007 on Elements Music.

Also catch Atlas live at Southern Amp 2 at the AMI Stadium in Christchurch on Saturday November 10th 2007.

www.myspace.com/atlastheband www.elementsmusic.net

